The Dems are currently comprised of bitter establishment types & militant leftists, the problem for both is that they only agree on hating Trump. The establishment Dems are showing their incompetence by thinking the violent radicals won't turn on them the second they taste power.

Kamala Harris and 13 campaign staffers helped raise $$ that went to these types, and it took our work to uncover it.

Officials in Oregon are still trying to dispel rumors l nking Antifa to wildfires

Here s the sheriff n Clackamas County, which has had a lot of people fearing those rumors, ta king about investigations into reports such as people carry ng a gas can nes.com/2020/09/ 7/us/

> intelligence or information about any group committing any crimes," Sheriff Craig Roberts of Clackamas County, Ore., said in a news conference Wednesday evening. "No arrests have been made associated with any group."
> He said that efforts to trace tips often led to rumors started by "a friend of a friend," sources that detectives could not validate, or passing observations that were spun into wild conspiracies online. In one instance, he said, two people helping evacuees noticed an abandoned gasoline can, and moved it to a safe place away from the fire. Someone called in their activity to the police, who investigated and found "they were trying to do just a good deed."

1) the Antifa approved press is abnorma y focused on the "rumors" antifa started the fires
2) when we had the gorge f re there was discussion about who started t. of course. but there seemed to be a lot more d scussion about the environmental loss

#AlwynCashe

AUG 24 2020

The Honorable Michael Waltz
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Representative Waltz

I am writing in response to a request from Representatives Stephanie Murphy, Dan Crenshaw, and Michael Waltz for posthumous award of the Medal of Honor to Alwyn C. Cashe, Sergeant First Class (SFC), U.S. Army, under 10 U.S.C. § 1130, "Consideration of proposals for decorations not previously submitted in timely fashion; procedures for review."

I reviewed the proposal to upgrade the Silver Star Medal awarded posthumously to SFC Cashe for his valorious actions on October 7, 2005 in Iraq in support of Operation IRAQI FREEDOM to the Medal of Honor. After giving the nomination careful consideration, I agree that SFC Cashe's actions merit award of the Medal of Honor.

However, 10 U.S.C. § 7274 requires that the Medal of Honor be awarded within five years after the date of the act justifying the award. Before we can take further action with this nomination, Congress must waive this time limit. Once legislation is enacted authorizing the President of the United States to award, in the name of the Congress, the Medal of Honor to SFC Cashe, I will provide my endorsement to the President. The final award authority for the Medal of Honor rests solely with the President. My favorable determination in no way presumes what the President's decision might be.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs. I am sending identical letters to the Committees on Armed Services of the House of Representatives and the Senate, Representative Murphy, and Representative Crenshaw.

Sincerely,

Matt. Esper

From @RepStephMurphy @RepMichaelWaltz @RepDanCrenshaw

"With unanimous passage of our bill by the House today, we are one step closer to ensuring that Alwyn Cashe receives the Medal of Honor he earned," said Murphy. "I am grateful that our ... Alwyn's life story has inspired so many, and I look forward to ... the United States Senate, where I believe we will have many allies. We will not stop working until we get the job across the finish line."

"We owe our elite forces to properly recognize heroism ... Sergeant Cashe's valor in the face of danger is truly inspiring. Alwyn's story of the Medal of Honor was nothing short of extraordinary, and I am glad that the Senate quickly follows suit and gets the bill to their ... desk for signature."

"I have many days ... received an extra dose ... over the Alwyn Cashe ... Words hold ... this award ... in the face of danger has ... already ... and I look at it as a significant step forward to ... properly recognize men like him ... Sergeant Cashe ... come together as one ... of his bravery to receive the Medal of Honor. Now we need our colleagues on the House to pass ... bill."

Keeping Americans alive is a pretty old idea that should never be cast aside China is a strategic competitor and we'll need allies to counter that competition. Pissing off everyone but the Russians is not a good strategy to counter China.

Looking at the new alliances Trump has built & how our old allies are paying more of their share it's hard to objectively say only the Russians are happy.

These perceptions are a bit hyperbolic. Every time our allies have needed us we've shown up, fought & bled. No other nation has that track record, us asking them to not buy RU oil or pay what they committed to won't change the overall benefit of partnering w/us

I've voted absentee most of my life due to military service. To say it's "shocking" for the DOJ to release a statement over potential issues with military ballots is what we would call a 'dereliction of duty'. Do your job.

I shou d just get the following on record
1) US is begin ng the process of suspending Embassy Baghdad
2) That process takes quite a wh le Many, many months.
3) Intervening events in secu ing the IZ can stop and reverse that process. something US has flagged.

This is the right call, we can't partner & fund a government that allows members of its government to kill our troops & diplomats.

The GOI has never truly faced any repercussions for supporting Iranian terror, we may just have to show them that we mean business.

[Thread] Last month in Oval Office, Trump asked Iraqi PM Kadhimi: “What do we get out of this [relationship]?” This was asked repeatedly, pointing to how much the US gives, but what does it receive in return? The PM’s response – centering on regional stability – didn’t resonate.

Some suggest Kadh mi can salvage the US presence in Iraq and take military action against the Iranian-backed m tias. But such advice is misp aced and represents an act of desperation entai ing the highest form of risk for the PM not to mention the c vil unrest unleashed.

For many years. the US has faced a commitment problem in Iraq. How can it credibly signal the strength and re ab ity of its commitment wh e it also diminishes and narrows ts commitment and now threatens to leave the country?

Ramzy Mardini @RamzyMardini 52m

There was recognition within the PM's inner circle, especially after last month s DC visit that the US acks an apprec ation of the PM s po tica constraints to confront m tias, per my article with @LahibHiger in @ForeignPolicy

The assumption is that Assad would use the sanctioned resources for his ppl, not against them.

The sanctions may not stop specific atrocities but they do force Iran & Russia spend $ they don't have to keep Assad in power, economically stressing 3 bad actors for the price of 1.

Like coffee, bourbon is a very important beverage to take seriously while consuming. Life's too short for bad bourbon.

So on #nationalpodcastday make sure to grab some of the best bourbon you can find and take a gander at @EricTWBB podcast

Tonight's rocket attacks near Erbil international airport is more like a message than an attack, as none of the rockets targeted the airport, but the message has been heard, as it was to tell everyone that no area or place in all over #Iraq can be safe for the foreign forces.

The Battle of Mogadishu ended 27 years ago this morning. These two men, Randy Shughart & Gary Gordon, became legends. When they learned ground forces weren't going to make it to the crash site, they volunteered to insert to try to save the pilot. Let's think of them today.

The memory of these men are organic to the very fabric of the base they were at. Near the entrance to one of the buildings there is a memorial, a constant reminder of why we were there.

The Nigeriens have not forgotten either, and have shared in the pain of the loss.

It's one of the few places I had the pleasure of serving in where the partners WANTED Americans, wanted to be better, and had equal drive to stop the bad guy. I can't speak for all of Niger, but I can say, for the region these men lost their lives in, it's doing better

There are many of us, from all over the political spectrum, who see in Critical Race Theory an anti-scientific, anti-human ideology. This essay might shed some light. You sound genuinely open and curious; if so, I would be happy to talk with you.

Most places this is edgy. In Portland this is how many children are taught to speak to adults, so it's actually pretty pedestrian

Breaking: The US Attorney for Oregon (@USAO_OR) rejects @tedwheeler's demand to remove the deputized status of some Portland Police officers. The cross-deputization allows those who assault local cops to be federally charged. #PortlandRiots

The U.S. Marshal will not cancel the cross-deputation of local and state law enforcement officers. Law enforcement and law-abiding citizens of Portland have endured months of nightly criminal violence and destruction. Officers have been repeatedly assaulted with bottles, bats, sledgehammers, lasers, rocks, and other weapons of convenience. In addition, the public has seen repeated efforts by criminals to burn down public buildings. These violent, senseless, and criminal acts have no bearing on social justice. They only serve to exacerbate lawlessness in this city. Federal cross-deputation of Oregon State Police, Multnomah County Sheriff and Portland are sick of the boarded up and dangerous conditions prevalent in downtown Portland due to a lack of leadership. We call upon citizens of this city and state to denounce violence, demand accountability, and work together to end the violence.

How many American lives would have been saved had the President acted differently? How do you disentangle these from the actions of governors and other government officials, or from decisions made by foreign governments? How much of the blame should Trump take here?

If Joe Biden respected the troops he wouldn't have voted for the war in Iraq, announced our time line for w/ draw in AFG or started a new destabilizing war in Libya or sent billions to Iranian terrorists.

Trump will use force when needed w/out getting us in more endless wars.

Your view of the reality of COVID relief is interesting.

The role of the FedGov is to coordinate responses, set priorities, and allocate resources that are not maintained at the state level. This is ICS 101 and it's also basic leadership. The Administration has done none of that

The FedGov did all of that, the states needed PPE & ventilators the federal government provided, same w/the therapeutics & vaccine.

Keeping the country intact & preserving our economy & way of life is the fed government's job, not dictating what we wear or where we gather.

Also: You believe he's "on track for a vaccine"?

What does that mean exactly? He put DoD in charge of it. What DoD agency does that? With what authorization? What funding? Literally ALL the vaccine programs are big pharma. Standards aren't set my DoD. It's done by HHS.

When would be a good time for the "right wing militias" to start standing up? I thought that it would be when law enforcement did nothing, such as in the blue states, where they are told to stand down (or at least catch and release)?

Seattle is heading for trouble.

Amazon is moving thousands of jobs out of the city and nearby Microsoft is going permanent work-from-home—and yet, Seattle's political class insists on punishing businesses with new taxes.

Get ready for the realignment.

Iranian proxies have a long history of using cease fires to achieve their political goals.

This is being done to keep the US aid $ flowing & keep easy access to US targets.

Without those two key components Iran loses a major source of funding & strategic response options.

We'll at least make them work for it. If I were the QF I'd take my chances on our embassy in Baghdad or one of our log hubs before I expended the resources required to attack our ships or an embassy in Kuwait / Bahrain etc.

Cutting off the $ the Iraqi gov is a huge blow too.

Meet John Jackson. He's a veteran of the Army AND the Marines. He owns a cafe called Heroes American. Antifa in Portland is targeting him for supporting police. They shot at his cafe and broke his windows. Why doesn't his Black life matter to Antifa?

You can see from the screen shot she's followed by Portland's antifa mayor candidate. It's a sprint to the bottom in the rose city.

Can't even send a web link for @AmericanCont on Facebook with absolutely no blocking or suppression of Antifa. All because Americans empowering themselves with facts on domestic terrorist acts doesn't fit their narrative. #communist

I've said this many times, I don't "like" Trump. He's self-centered, annoying, and easily distracted.

But I believe in objective reality.

His judicial nominations are FACTS.

0 new foreign wars are FACTS.

Shutting down critical race theory is FACTS.

Vote FACTS, not FEELINGS.

I have had plenty of arguments with behavior with Ds over the years but I am sad to say the right has been far more guilty for the past several years

Robert Fuer @RobFuer 22m

As evidenced where and how? In the burning, looting and looting of our major cities ? Or do you mean in mean tweets? In doctrines taught in our schools like Critical theory, critical race theory and gender studies? Or in peaceful rallies? can go on. Please elaborate

I'm must have missed Democratic politicians burning and looting, because this conversation is regarding the behavior of politicians in the various parties. But regardless, I mean that there is little/ no ideological consistency in the GOP currently regarding positions they defend

The post Trump GOP will be a fight between those who understand what Trump tapped into, unapologetic pragmatic populism vs. those who want to return to a traditional McCain/Romney establishment business as usual party. The Dems have yet to allow this fight in their ranks.

As a registered Democrat, I can say that the fight is happening, and Trump has tried to take advantage of it. There's a ton of animosity between the center-left pragmatists (think Obama, HRC, Biden), and the wing that identifies itself as Democratic Socialist.

This election will be the referendum on the establishment vs. the populists for both parties, it was pretty amazing to see the dems come up with the current ticket after '16.

I've been saying that for years. HRC was an "establishment candidate" in a "populist election." Bernie was hugely popular, but was outgunned by the machine.

The party s still mostly a center-left party that tries to appeal to the DS wing, but hasn t always succeeded The DS wing hasn't turned out to support the Dem candidate n genera election

Andrew Gross @grossap 4 Min

That said. the schism on the right is far more pronounced Long time conservative (or neo conservative) standard bearers have walked away.

I think the difference is success, for all of Trump's flaws he tapped into something in '16 and then produced in his 1st term, so most standard bearers have had to get on board or leave. If he loses in Nov the fight is back on, if he wins the GOP's change is likely to last.

I think you hit the nail on the head

In politics, a perceived victory is a victory. Trump figured that out. Bigly as one might say

But Government is serious business for serious people. stares at inept COVID-19 response

Very serious that's why being stuck in the failed ideologies of the past is dangerous for both parties. The Covid issue boils down how we view fed government, is it our savior or should it stay out of our lives & ensure our freedoms? That's the core issues this election.

This is exactly the crux of my problem with the GOP There is no longer a primary motivation of "I champion these ideas" but rather "I hate libs tears = good outcome." The GOP now defines themselves only as a foil to those they oppose.

The same is true for the Dems. Biden is running against Trump's personality not his ideas or record or really even Trump's record.

In politics, a perceived victory is a victory. Trump figured that out. Bigly as one might say

But Government s serious business for serious people stares at inept COVID-19 response

Joe Kent @joekent16 an19 19 Min

Very serious that's why being stuck in the failed ideologies of the past is dangerous for both parties. The Covid issue boils down how we view fed government, is t our savior or shou d it stay out of our ives & ensure our freedoms? That's the core ssues this election.

The lockdowns are the "red meat." Fact is that the federal government has very tt e ability to enforce lockdowns

Considering how slow government is to act & the tendencies toward status quo stagnation I'm good with many of the senior leaders being sidelined, hard to grow with out disruption. Guess we'll see in 3 weeks how things shake out.

I know that's the norm now, but it's interesting that it's developed that way since (as @mkenelson586 points out) KIA bracelets are descendants of Vietnam-era MIA bracelets that were definitely not culturally reserved for people who knew them — just the opposite, in fact.

Absolutely agree. I am fascinated by the audacity of cutting off ANY info prior to an election.

No one really knows if this is foreign disinformation — certainly the Steele dossier got wide (and persistent) coverage as did WikiLeaks (stolen) info.

Very dangerous.

Sgt. First Class Cashe was on patrol in Iraq when an IED detonated under his Bradley. Drenched in fuel, he ran to and from the vehicle to pull 6 more soldiers to safety -- even though he was on fire. He died from his burns 3 weeks after the rescue.

Prairie Fire is a guide for Red Counties to survive and thrive during what looks to be another Civil War brewing. Drawing on his experience in Special Forces with counter insurgency, the author creates a step by step road map to making it out alive. Featuring the same gallows humor mixed with real world examples as Concrete Jungle: A Green Beret's Guide to Urban Survival, Prairie Fire is the spiritual

Getting the Sunni Gulf states (W/ UAE & Bahrain in lead) to cooperate on CT & counter Iran strengths security in the region & only isolates bad actors. Others will likely follow if Trump is re elected to benefit from security & economic cooperation.

TUCKER: None of them are saying the Biden emails are fake. They're not going to claim that, because they know it's not true. The emails are real, and everyone knows they're real. To this day, no one has even claimed a single document on the laptop is fraudulent.

Unfortunately, the last part isn't true.

9 retired 4-stars have endorsed Trump, and he has more GOFO endorsements overall. But Biden's list is MUCH more impressive.

It is BY FAR the best showing by a Dem candidate EVER, and Trump's is the WORST for a GOP candidate since 2000.

> Max Boot @MaxBoot
> Biden has the support of more than 200 retired admirals and generals, including at least 22 four-stars. The latest to support him is Adm Bill McRaven, former SOCOM commander

As opposed to putting US troops in harms way, this is fighting smart. We did the same in Iraq / Syria against ISIS in favor of Shia militias (PMU).

The difference in AFG is that we are not directly funding the TB like we are the PMU, so this is much smarter.

Very little on foreign policy, about which Biden knows a lot, but "Mr. Free-Association" would rather talk fracking and 401Ks

Mostly because that's the last topic Biden wants to discuss considering his record. But how easily the topic was dropped shows how little interest & investment the American ppl have in our wars / foreign policy. An interesting unintended consequence of the all volunteer force.

We should only allow those who seek legal entry in & have a strong border. The children are used a pawns to circumvent a loophole for "families". Families meant having a child, so children became in demand.

The problem is mass illegal immigration & unsecured borders. Asylum must be granted on a case by case basis not catch & release resulting in default asylum.

It's no wonder the foreign policy focus of last night's debate was changed by the moderator. It would've been a 100 minute Trump show with 20 minutes spread throughout for Biden to make excuses.

So much so, based the hero in my first novel on him and another fallen friend

This is a work of fiction But like al. stories, the characters are based on real people The main character Mike Bryant is based on two good friends of mine, and I hope this page will cause you to take a minute and remember the real heroes in the world And all the ones from the GWOT that never got to come home.

CW2 Mike Duskin was a giant of a man, standing six foot, eight inches and weighing in a 280 pounds of twisted steel His hobbies included shooting three guns with his son, and "picking heavy things up and moving them over there" Despite his intimidating size, Mike was a fantastic mentor and teacher, and he always left his ego at the door I lost the fast rope gloves he loaned me at SFAURTEC when I was a student and he was an instructor, and he gave me zero new guy shit about it Later we became fast friends. My favorite story about Mike involved him beating one crackhead with another crackhead in the foyer of a Fayetteville Waffle House when they started some shit. If I had made him the actual central character of this novel, it would have ended many chapters earlier On realizing he was captured, Mike would have busted the handcuffs and beat everyone to death on principle. It was a terrible blow to the Regiment the day

If we step back & assess the terror grp we want to render ineffective we will see they have local enemies who they are fighting against for their daily survival. We should exploit the daily violence to keep our enemies constantly off balance

The cherry on top is letting an actor like Russia or Iran directly support a side, then we can score 2 for 1 by letting attriting a regional / world power of resources while keeping a terror grp busy w/ their daily survival

We seemed to work well in this grey area in the 80s.

The downside to disengagement is that both sides will seek equilibrium, divide the spoils, & unite against a common enemy - us. I agree that all we need is dissuasion from attacking us but that had been achieved 18 years ago, yet here we are, humiliated by ISI + TB.

We most recently did this in Iraq/SY w/ the Shia militias (PMU) against ISIS.

The only problem there was the PMU became part of the GOI so we were funding the PMU as they predictably turned on us.

Cutting temp tactical alliances that can be quickly severed is key.

Our problem is that we think we can chose a side & they will become force for our view of "good". This leads us into decade long efforts to prop up ineffective locals so they hopefully, one day, can fight terror on their own.

If we step back & assess the terror grp we want to render ineffective we will see they have local enemies who they are fighting against for their daily survival. We should exploit the daily violence to keep our enemies constantly off balance

As opposed to putting US troops in harms way? I'm good with it. I think this model in the region is smart. Exploit existing sectarian / tribal violence for tactical gain.

We did this in Anbar during the awakening, I worked w/ Sunni insurgents who fought against us in Fallujah.

The cherry on top is letting an actor like Russia or Iran directly support a side, then we can score 2 for 1 by letting attriting a regional / world power of resources while keeping a terror grp busy w/ their daily survival.

We seemed to work well in this grey area in the 80s.

The subpoena for Hunter Biden's laptop by the FBI has the file number 272D-BA in it. The 272D is the classification for money laundering and the BA is the classification for the Baltimore Field Office (BFO). The BFO oversees investigations in Delaware.

There are unnamed sources at the FBI, I know how much Trump haters love unnamed sources, that have stated to media that the investigation involving the laptop involves money laundering. This would coincide with some of the publicly released emails from the Biden laptop

Greg West @GregWest_HALOJM · 30 Sek.
It would also start filling gaps from the cursory investigations that were conducted by US Senate that never looked into a slew of probabilities involving the Bidens, some of which they cited, "that was US policy at the time during the Obama Administration."

Problem with that point of view is Obama policy changed on Ukraine & China at the same time Hunter Biden began his deal making campaigns. It also coincides wBiden's involvement in pressuring for the firing of Prosecutor Shokin in Ukraine at the time it was investigating Burisma.

Biden failed to address terror since 9/11 each time he had a chance he voted for the Iraq war, let ISIS take over large swaths of Iraq / Syria & started a new war in Libya providing ISIS another front & left our troops in AFG.

Biden's foreign policy legacy is failure.

President @realDonaldTrump is up in Florida by almost 400,000 votes with more than 90% of precincts reporting. Why haven't networks called the race? It's a done deal and the refusal to recognize the obvious speaks volumes about the (lack of) objectivity of these outlets.

The Secretary emphasizes that the remedy sought here is not the invalidation of the Election Code's received-by deadline, but rather the grant of equitable relief to extend temporarily the deadline to address "mail-delivery delays during an on-going public health disaster." Secretary's Brief at 18. As no party is seeking the invalidation of the received-by deadline, the Secretary rejects the suggestion of Respondent and the Caucus that the remedy would trigger the nonseverability provision of Act 77, reasoning that the Court would be granting "a temporary short extension to address the exigencies of a natural [20] She specifically recommends that the Court "order that ballots mailed by voters by 8:00 p.m. on Election Day be counted if they are otherwise valid and received by the county boards of election by November 6, 2020. Ballots received within this period that lack a postmark or other proof of mailing, or for which the postmark or other proof of mailing is illegible, should enjoy a presumption that they were mailed by Election Day. Secretary's Application at 29. We observe that this proposal therefore requires that all votes be cast by Election Day but does not disenfranchise a voter based upon the absence or illegibility of a USPS postmark that is beyond the control of the voter once she places her ballot in the USPS delivery system.

Conspiracies get all the attention & are usually fantasy, while government slow roll & incompetence grinds on preventing the outcome that will make government do actual work.

Usually it's to keep a status quo, in this election it's being done to return the status quo.

Take note of the "conservatives" who have already given up on Trump - or worse - are currently cheering for Biden.

Take note of the actual conservatives who have the stones to call out obvious fraud and who will be labeled "conspiracy theorists" by the establishment.

That depends on what Trump supporters you are asking. His foreign policy record, especially on ISIS & Iran while not starting new wars has won over many vets. His focus on China speaks to working class voters & FP watchers alike. His 4 yrs vs. B's 47 yrs is quite the contrast.

The big issues are PA's AG & Sec state showing overt bias & saying that B will win once the votes are tallied. MI & WI halting the vote then having ballots show up is also odd.

Mail in is far easier to tamper w/, some states it down, not the ones that shifted to mail in 2020.

Just seems like in an election where we have highest turnout in 120 years, and tons of mail in ballots, it would make sense these things are taking time.

Given the security (checking signatures and voter rolls + people from both sides watching) I expected it to take a long time

The time alone is not the biggest issue, the partisanship in PA plus the work stoppages on election night warrant this going to the courts. If the Dems were confident in their turn out the changes in election procedures wouldn't have been part of their plan.

In 2000, Al Gore put the country through a 37-day recount process in which he urged the courts to permit recounts only in the places where he thought he find additional votes for him. If you doubt that, read the book his lawyer, David Boies, wrote about it.

There is no valid reason to oppose getting the courts involved here. It's a very close election. It's already been dragged on for days. If there's no solid evidence of fraud, that will come out in court and be the end of it. If there is, we'll find that out too.

As always, Lee is on point.

For the sake of our nation we must investigate every vote in contested states.

We can't have this doubt cast on our system.

In '16 Trump was accused of being a foreign agent, casting major doubt on our system, it was investigated & he was cleared.

PA's AG & sec state's public comments about the out comes of the election should earn PA a re count. Same with MI & adding zeros or finding ballots at 4 am. Again, if Biden won, fine but let's take the time to make sure all voting happened legally.

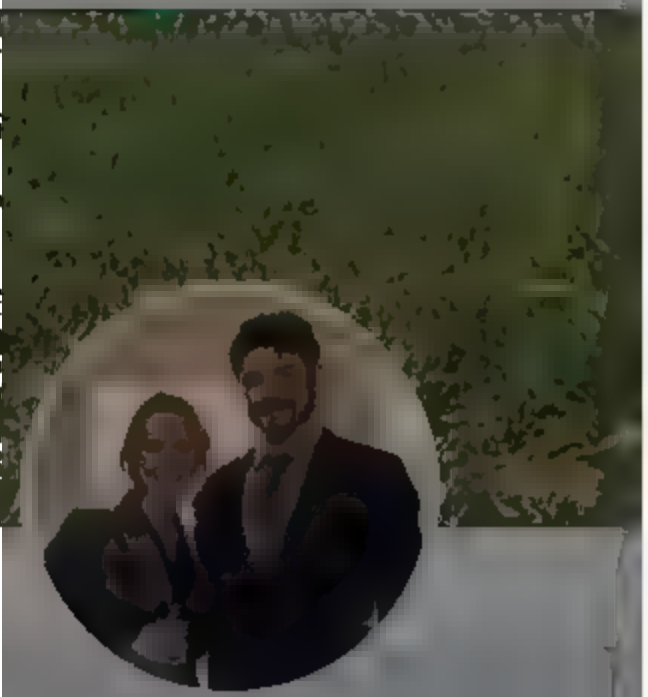
I'm not very suspicious of GA other than the timing of Biden votes coming in.



For the states that have taken this long to count I don't see the harm in a transparent re count, but the harm in no recount is obvious.

There will likely be a few recounts They are usually automatic based on how close the decision Those usually find a very small number of human errors but don't change the outcomes.

There is far more doubt in this election, Hillary expected a blow out, so there was no doubt in the integrity of the 16' vote.

If Biden won so be it, but right now there is too much doubt & damage time our system to not have a re count.

Lmm Joe Trump screwed himself by discouraging his base from mail-in voting during a pandemic. Also, Hillary lost by less than these margins but somehow was gracious enough not to cast aspersions or demand audits. I lost Lee at "we deplorable"

Republicans run elections in GA. What s the explanation there? Somehow the Democrats overlooked stealing the Senate

Joe Kent @joekent16jan19 32 Min

I'm not very suspicious of GA other than the timing of Biden votes coming in

For the states that have taken this long to count I don t see the harm in a transparent re count, but the harm in no recount is obvious.

Mark @madrmdb 29 Min

There will likely be a few recounts They are usually automatic based on how close the decision Those usually find a very small number of human errors but don't change the outcomes.

Joe Kent @joekent16jan19 17 Min

Law suits are certainly coming so we' l see. A simple re count with observers from both sides would go a long way in keeping the faith in our system.

Mark @madrmdb 5 Min

Law suits are failing due to a dearth of facts. There are already observers from both parties there for the origina. counting process.

In GA maybe. I think the cases in PA, MI/WI & NV will warrant further investigation. Guess we'll see.

Clinton, on the other hand, has spent four years at the encouragement of the media suggesting that Trump did not legitimately win the election in 2016, after votes were certified. He got impeached for it!

What precedent did people expect that would set!?

Drew Holden
@DrewHolden360

Republicans - not just the president - should fight like hell NOW, before the vote is certified, so that we can be confident in the results. The histrionics around it need to stop until the facts on the ground support that kind of language.

In time they might.

And once we are confident, what Trump & his supporters need to do is accept the results if he loses, same for Biden if things change.

I'm not so naive as to be bullish on this. But eventually we will have an answer. When we do - whatever it is - we ALL need to treat it as final.

Great point. We need to be far more diligent when deploying our forces. The title 50 option would allow for far less forces on the ground. I think SOF, especially SF has become TF /Ranger centric due to the gwot HVT hunt game. Not knocking that, it's needed but not for all SOF.

For this election to be seen as legitimate, the media had to wait until 100% of votes were certified to call the election.

There was 0 reason to call the election early, as people were told for MONTHS leading up to the election that results wouldn't be final for weeks after.

Considering the push back & slow roll Trump faced w/ pulling troops out of SY & AFG it's understandable that he wants to ensure appointees share his view

It's amazing how leaving US troops in AFG/SY/IZ is some sacred norm despite our abysmal record in the region

Very few Americans believed the Russian Collusion push by the media & Schiff - even Democrats when under oath said they saw no evidence of it.

But the 2020 Election? 70% of 72 million & I'm assessing 30% of the 77 million that voted for Biden believe this was a stolen election.

The war on terror has led to 7,000+ American deaths and cost American taxpayers over $6,400,000,000,000 in 20 years with, shall we shall, inconclusive benefits.

Despite that, most of the Beltway ecosystem shudders at the thought of even trying to end it.

Read this sworn affidavit from GOP poll challenger, and former Assistant AG for Michigan, Zachary Larsen, on the alleged fraud he observed in Detroit. This is Third World stuff, and every American should be outraged if these allegations are true greatlakesjc.org/wp-content/upl …

processed without confirmation that the voter was an eligible voter on the poll book because of information he had received from other poll challengers (Exhibit A).

6. Mr. Larsen reviewed the running list of scanned in ballots on the computer system, where it appeared that the voter had already been counted as having voted. An official operating the computer then appeared to assign this ballot to a different voter as he observed a completely different name that was added to the list of voters at the bottom of a running tab of processed ballots on the right side of the screen (Exhibit A).

7. Mr. Larsen was concerned that this practice of assigning names and numbers indicated that a ballot was being counted for a non-eligible voter who was not in either the poll book or the supplemental poll book. From his observation of the computer screen, the voters were not in the official poll book. Moreover, this appeared to be the case for the majority of the voters whose ballots he personally observed being scanned (Exhibit A).

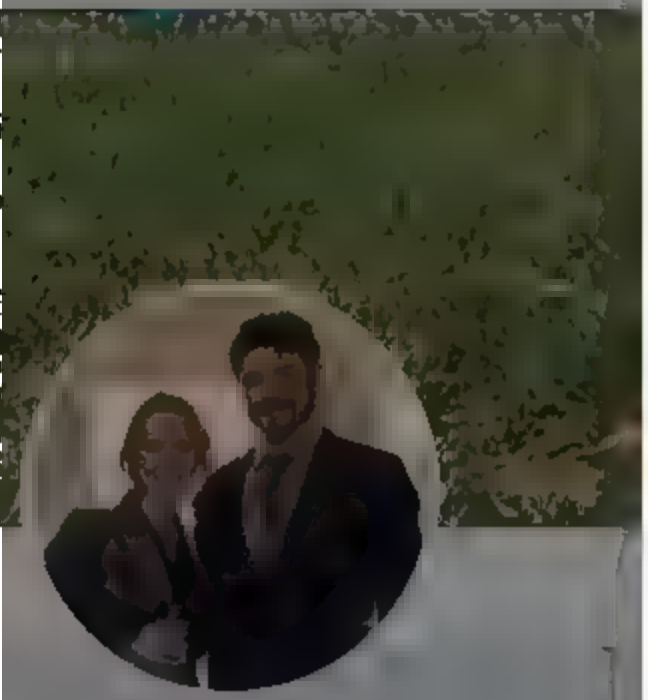
Career diplomat can't deny Trump's success in the Middle East but wouldn't obey orders to fully implement POTUS's plan.



Linear thinkers who believe overt US prescience on the ground is key to success leave us in a perpetual state of vulnerable conflict.

The career diplomats & military officers can't deny the success of Trump's use of force & diplomatic pressure but cannot accept ending these conflicts because doing so limits their power. Trump needs to keep firing ldrs until our civil servants abide by the constitution.

Deep state implies a conspiracy or strategy, the truth is actually more frightening, there's a deep seated culture in career state/DOD & IC ldrs that wants to keep us in the Middle East indefinitely & has passed off 2 decades of failure as a sacred norm.

Yes, the last think we need now is more socialism and for the Fed to print the money to "pay" for it. If you think the people are suffering now, wait until you see how much worse your socialist policy prescription will make it.

We don't want our troops in body bags, so we leave them at war, indefinitely.

It's horrible Russia would put bounties on our troops, so let's leave them in place & leak the intel.

Understanding modern war & caring for our troops does not look like these partisan tropes.

The alarm on the part of NATO's Secretary General and allies sure suggests it's a change in policy. Informing allies after you've announced the decision doesn't count as consultation.

We led the wars, did most of the fighting/dying & funding. Our partners on the ground greatly benefitted from our efforts, we are under no obligation to stay in places that don't benefit us indefinitely.

Our Allies, who were NOT attacked on 9-11, have stuck with us for 19 years and suffered more than 1100 casualties. Failing to consult in advance is not only diplomatic malpractice, but it is also unconscionable to do that to those who fought & died with us & provided $1B+/year.

Yes, as the person who managed Allied and partner troop and financial contributions for the last three years at USNATO, Allies gave that money because we asked them for it and we probably will continue to ask for it. But yes many Allies do think it is important to stay

I'd also note that we are, in fact, staying, not going to 0. Unless there is a change in the next administration, this leaves us with a CT platform, security force assistance mission, and most of the same financial commitments to the Afghan government (though slightly reduced)

I'd prefer zero title 10, but the CT model seems to be a reasonable compromise for now that should keep our partners happy. I'm very skeptical of spending on a AFG gov that will crumble the day after we leave.

Thanks @DonaldJTrumpJr for sharing this. And thanks for working to promote greater realism and restraint in our foreign policy. This is actually the best way to support the troops - not keeping them mired in unnecessary wars.

We just struck various Iranian Quds Force and SAF military targets in Syria, in response to IEDs placed against our troops (discovered earlier today).
We hold the Syrian regime and Iran responsible.

If you look at the complete video, it appears this is part of an ongoing streamlining of the chain of command, bringing SpecOps on par in the DoD with other service branches. But, yeah, this clip is terrible, given what is happening now.

Exactly. In Portland our dem mayor won against his far left antifa opponent, but the mayor & other Dems desperately want to appease the far left. PDX's once thriving businesses down town are being crushed by this. PDX will be a great case study of letting the fringe run a city

What should be very concerning to liberals is how effective the leftists are in crafting narrative. The issues in Portland started as BLM protests over George Floyd but once they established CHAZ the majority BLM voice was subverted by the Marxist/anarchist rhetoric.

I don't understand why liberal politicians won't distance themselves from these people. Leftists don't consider themselves liberals and the liberals shouldn't see them as allies.

The far left discovered the kryptonite for the progressives was accusing them of being racist Trump supporters any time the progressives expressed concern over the city being burned.

Republicanism is no longer a political problem; Republicanism is a social problem. It must be treated in the same way coronavirus is treated. It has to be isolated and snuffed out by repressing it in about 70% of the general population.

Time & place for most things, if a company is what u describe above, sure cancel away. A company doing good work & making a decision you don't like hardly meets that criteria.

US foreign policy is in a far better place now than it was 4 years ago. Major terror threats beaten back w/ decisive action that didn't result in new wars.

Respectfully Joe, I disagree with you. The appearance of success in our recent foreign policy is a thin veneer. Yes, ISIS got destroyed. Yes, some Arab nations are formally talking with Israel. However, Russia has gotten stronger globally, China even more so. DPRK is not peaceful

NEWS: Pennsylvania judge blocks state from certifying election results in presidential and all other races.

@EpochTimes

Source: scribd.com/document/48579 …

1. As to the Supplemental Emergency Application, to the extent that there remains any further action to perfect the certification of the results of the 2020 General Election (the "Election"), for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States of America, Respondents are preliminarily enjoined from doing so pending an evidentiary hearing to be held on Friday, November 27, 2020 at 11:30 am via WebEx.

2. As to the Emergency Motion filed on November 22, 2020, inasmuch as Respondents, based on their Press Release and briefs, have not undertaken certification of any of the other results of the Election, Respondents are preliminarily enjoined from certifying the remaining results of the Election, pending the evidentiary hearing on Friday, November 27, 2020 at 11:30 am via WebEx.

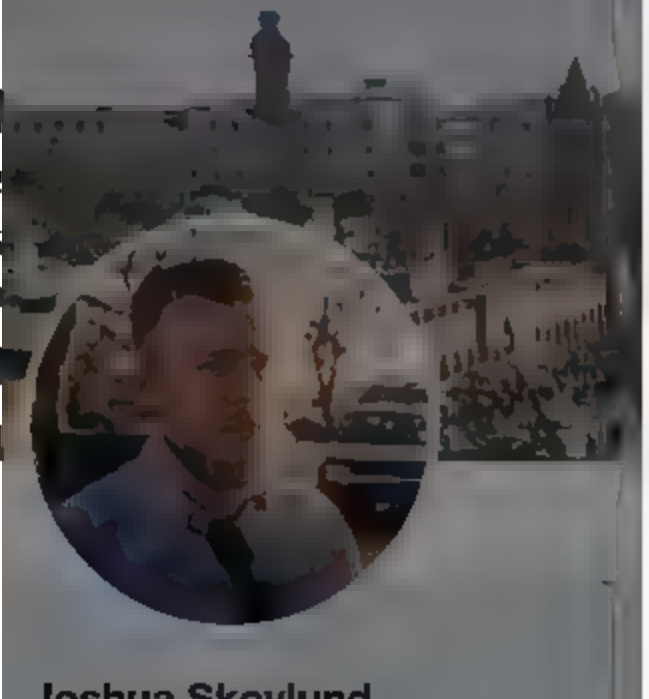
Wise words



devil's rabbits. Do your work. Let liars lie, let corporations resolve, let the devil do his worst; but see to it that nothing hinders you from fulfilling the work that God has given you.

He has not commanded you to get rich. He has never bidden you defend your character. He has not set you at work to contradict falsehood about yourself which Satan and his servants may start to peddle. If you do those things, you will do nothing else; you will be at work for yourself and not for the Lord

Keep at your work. Let you aim be as steady as a star.

Transition Live Updates: Biden's Cabinet Picks Veer Away From Trump's Isolationism

"Diplomacy is back," said Linda Thomas-Greenfield, President-elect Joe Biden's choice for ambassador to the United Nations. President Trump is expected to meet with Republican lawmakers in Pennsylvania in his unending bid to overturn the election.

RIGHT NOW Trump plans to meet with Republicans in Pennsylvania today in his quest to find voting irregularities.

From @SidneyPowell1's lawsuit filed in Georgia

"... the Dominion software was accessed by agents acting on behalf of China & Iran in order to monitor & manipulate elections, including the most recent US general election in 2020."
docdroid.com/e3rhDCz/compla ...

As explained and demonstrated in the accompanying redacted declaration of a former electronic intelligence analyst under 305th Military Intelligence with experience gathering SAM missile system electronic intelligence, the Dominion software was accessed by agents acting on behalf of China and Iran in order to monitor and manipulate elections, including the most recent US general election in 2020. This Declaration further includes a copy of the patent records for Dominion Systems in which Eric Coomer is listed as the first of the inventors of Dominion Voting Systems. (See Attached hereto as Exh. 8, copy of redacted witness affidavit, 17 pages, November 23, 2020).

When you consider SPND's existence, Iran's concealment of a secret nuclear weapons archive AND the IAEA reporting Iran is today concealing undeclared nuclear material, the world must face the truth. We don't face a JCPOA crisis due to Trump; we face an NPT crisis due to Iran. 2/3

2/12 I will not comment on the legal claims because, while I have familiarity with the law and court filings, I'm not a lawyer. I am also going to mostly stay away from alleged behaviors, too, as I wasn't there and, anyway, they add color but are more open to dispute

3/12 Technology 1/2. The original intent of the software code (acc'd to affidavits) was to manipulate votes without detection. When you start with one goal in mind, it's tough to pivot to the opposite goal later—not matter how hard you might try. Not that it seems anyone tried

4/12 Tech 2/2. Absence of secure audit log (to record every action in the software) is so indefensible that I LOL'd when I read it. This fact alone should be enough to negate the results when there is ANY question about fraud because it cannot be proven that fraud DIDN'T occur

How courts treat election fraud. If you suspect a crime is about to be committed, they can't help you b/c no crime has been committed yet ("standing"), but once the crime has been committed they can't help you then either, because they can't stop the crime anymore (laches/moot).

With several battleground states certifying for Biden and no evidence of fraud presented yet from DOJ or from the lawsuits, what path do you see remaining for Trump?

Antwort an @MaskedJoe

The 2 main paths - a win in courts (likely scotus) to get the non verified mail in ballots thrown out or the states disqualified.

Or electors not certifying for Biden in US Congress after evidence of impropriety is presented publicly after a fail in courts.

So you would support electors not voting with the people of the state, even if no legal evidence was provided?

Joe Kent @joekent16jan19 1 Std

The data that has been presented in PA, MI, WI, NV, GA & AZ is compelling enough for me to believe the will of the people was taken illegally, so yes, I think Trump should be certified.

The hate from Trump is so strong his successes will be reversed to preserve the narrative the Dems have screamed for 4 years.

An investigation would provide necessary context to allegations like these.

If there is a reasonable explanation or these votes were not counted, voters have to be reassured with proof.

We need a real investigation.

Culture beats strategy every time

The left didn't need a wide spread complex strategy to steal the vote, they built a culture of frantic hate & panic about everything Trump did.

By 2020 Trump was "literally Hitler" & anything is justifiably against that evil.

Panic culture is always sloppy, hence the rapid ballot drops leading to results that appear to be statistically impossible

MAJOR UPDATE TO TIMELINE! Read carefully.

Dec 6-14 we need to apply maximum pressure on state legislatures of GA,WI,AZ,MI,PA aka #GWAMP to audit ballot signatures & forensic audit of Dominion machines to only include legal votes. Then select electors accord to legal vote winner.

QAnon is far more of "an idea" than Antifa ever was. And Antifa is responsible for far more hatred and violence. To say it's even close is absurd.

Of course, anyone who said "Antifa is just an idea" this summer was lying, and giving material support to terrorists.

A little over half way through the report on #FortHood. Believe it's fairly safe to say that you could scratch off "Fort Hood" on the cover page and substitute "US Army." We've known this. The findings do not surprise. Therein lies the problem. 1/

The fact that it took several tragedies, including the case of #VanessaGuillen to conduct a holistic review of climate and the SHARP program at Fort Hood does not inspire confidence or trust that we understand the breadth and depth of the problem. Where's the next review? 2/

We all agree many of our nation's systems and structures are fundamentally racist and require significant reform. There's a housing crisis, a health care crisis, an education crisis, an employment crisis, a mental health crisis, and an addiction crisis.

960 30 298

Mayor Ted Wheeler @tedwheeler 3h

All of these crises are magnified in urban areas, including Portland. And, these crises disproportionately impact Black people.

192 14 209

Mayor Ted Wheeler @tedwheeler 3h

It's also true that illegal trespassing, ignoring lawful orders from police, blocking sidewalks and streets, and intimidating neighbors inflame these crises and make them more difficult to solve. That is what's happening on North Mississippi Avenue right now.

In just 2.5 hours, the @realDonaldTrump campaign filled a 40 page response to NV Supreme Court. Pretty incredible.

Highlights in the thread.

3 of 40

II INTRODUCTION

On December 8, 2020, at approximately 4:30 p.m., the Court ordered that in a mere 2.5 hours, Appellants were to submit a "supplemental brief identifying the specific portions" of the 35-page district court order ("Order") that is the subject of this appeal "by page and paragraph number" and accompanied by "citations to the record in support of their arguments." To put this Herculean task in context, the Order contains 77 discrete findings of fact, many of which contain their own citations to the record. Appellants' draft appendix of record stretches over 13 volumes and exceeds 2,500 pages. Appellants are concerned that they are being requested to brief their entire appeal in just a couple hours. If that is true, Appellants hereby register their express request that the Court permit further supplemental briefing on a practicable timetable.

While Nevada Rules of Appellate Produce ("NRAP"), rule 2 permits this Court to alter and/or suspend its own rules and process an appeal as the Court directs, the Court cannot and should not do so at the total expense of due process. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 96 S.Ct. 893, 47 L.Ed.2d 18, 96 (1976)

He wrote this poem in memory of those lost in 1985.

I've fought when others feared to serve.
I've gone where many failed to go.
I've lost friends in war and strife, who valued duty over the love of life.
I've shared the comradeship of pain
I've searched these lands for men that we've lost.
I've sons who've served our land of liberty who'd fight to see that other lands are free.
I've seen the weak forsake humanity.
I've heard fakers praise our enemy.
I've seen challenged men stand ever bolder.
I've seen the duty, the honor, the sacrifice of the soldier.
Now, I understand the meaning of all lives,
The lives of comrades of not so long ago
So to you who answered duties siren call, may God bless you my son, may God bless you all.

Special to receive one of the first copies of @3WiseMenBook today. Writing this book with Sgt. Beau Wise, who lost both his brothers in Afghanistan, has been the honor of a lifetime. Thank you to the entire Wise family for your immeasurable sacrifices. bit.ly/IpThreeWiseMen

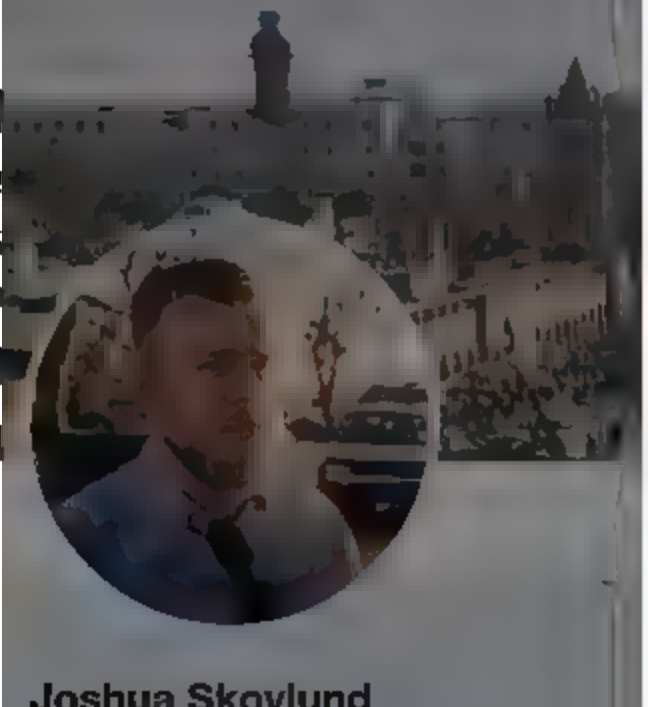
@senatemajldr siding with his corrupt old senate buddy
@JoeBiden shouldn't surprise us.



Any GOP members going along with the media narrative & the left's theft of this election should never be trusted with power again.

1. Joe Biden ran for president because he fell for the Fine People Hoax -- the most debunked hoax in history.

2. Fifty past and current American intelligence professionals lied to the American public about Russian disinformation and Hunter Biden.

MICHIGAN. 🚨

Today, Dominion's CEO denied that the company had ever had any business with Orion SolarWinds, the tech company involved in a major scandalous hack.

It is not yet 100% certain that it did use 'Orion' SolarWinds. But we sure know the Michigan government did.

3.1. Enterprise IT Asset Management Applications and Components

In the course of implementing multiple administrative solutions, the State has acquired multiple solution components that may be leveraged as part of a SAMO Solution. These existing components are detailed here.

DTMB has implemented or is in process of implementing the following systems:

- Microsoft System Center Configuration Manager (SCCM) version 20: 2:
  SCCM is used to manage all Windows workstations as well as Windows file, print and mail servers on the State network to provide software and configuration updates. It also gathers and reports on workstation and server information, including installed software. This solution is fully implemented on State end-user workstations.
- BMC Atrium Discovery and Dependency Mapping (ADDM):
  ADDM is used to automatically maintain a complete and up-to-date inventory of the State data center Windows, UNIX and Linux servers, both physical and virtual. It is fully implemented on State servers.
- Orion Solarwinds:
  - The State currently uses Solarwinds Network Management Software & Network Tools
- BMC Atrium Configuration Management Database (CMDB):
  - This is targeted to become the State's new Configuration Management Database (CMDB). Atrium CMDB will provide IT asset reporting, based on data consumed from Microsoft SCCM and BMC ADDM. Implementation will be completed in stages over the next two years. This project will require the awarded vendor to implement CMDB components required to support the SAMO Solution. Target go-live date is scheduled for August 2018.

When Krebs says this election was secure from the federal perspective he is talking about the narrow window the fed gov has into state/county business, relying entirely on standard less paper ballots w/ no verification & precinct level voting machines out of his control.

[THREAD]
It's impossible to get away with rigging an election. If this election was rigged by way of rigging 3-4 key swing state cities, as Republicans claim, then this election would've produced a ton of data anomalies and irregularities. We would expect to see things like:

09:25 · 16 Dez 2020

John Henry @fake_news_jr · 2 Min
• bellwether counties would suddenly stop being bellwether counties despite decades of near 100% consistency

• the rigged cities would produce implausibly high urban turnout but demographically identical cities in neighboring battleground states would have normal urban turnout

John Henry @fake_news_jr · 1 Min
• you would have an implausibly high number of Biden-only ballots (no down ballot selections) but the same phenomenon would not be seen with Trump ballots

John Henry @fake_news_jr · 1 Min
• a forensic audit of the voting machines used in these rigged cities would produce unexplainably high error rates and the edit logs would be nowhere to be found. They would be wiped

I think this factor is very underrated.

Many on the right are willing to sacrifice truth & freedom for peace. Peace they have no control over because the left has now seen how effective violence is, they won't just put away violence after it was so effective.

Folks, not only did former CISA Director, Chris Krebs, admit yesterday Dominion was connected to a "network" of some kind - which guarantees it's hackable - but right here in this video you see Dominion CEO contradicting himself.

RIGHT THERE ON TAPE.

EconChick/IntelChick @MikayesFiona
If it's in a NETWORK, it's not secure.

Only way it can be 100% secure is if it's STAND ALONE with no features allowing it to "accidentally" be connected to internet

I'm skeptical of the direct quotes but agree with the logic, many are allowing themselves to be held hostage knowing the left will riot (more). The Rs calling for Trump to concede are hiding behind this logic & the "norms" narrative.

Texas had no standing, it is a matter of law. It is the duty of SCOTUS to interpret and apply the law, which sometimes calls for judicial restraint.

States suing states is a SCOTUS issue, with our entire system being credibly questioned they should have stepped up. Instead they did what fed bureaucrats do best, they said "not my job."

It was 7-2 on standing, but also effectively a 9-0 on the merits, according to Justices Alito and Thomas "...but would not grant other relief" statement

Joe Kent @joekent16jan19 · 20 Min

Technically I'm sure you are correct about standing. We are living in extraordinary times. SCOTUS hearing the case on its merits could have adjudicated the election & helped restore some faith in our system. Instead they said they couldn't be bothered

Eric L. Robinson @UticaEric · 14 Min

Federal courts in WI, PA, AZ, & GA, the 3rd & 11th Circuit, and numerous state and local courts adjudicated election claims, and they really exhausted all lines of inquiry

SCOTUS is really only for remaining questions of law, and there aren't any remaining legal questions.

The fed courts threw out the cases asking for emergency injunctive relief of certification, none reviewed the evidence of voter fraud.

TX was a chance to present the evidence of fraud & have the highest court make a decision in a critical matter.

I country in MI has a 68% error rate w/dominion

Not to mention the statistical improbability

A court of law would be the best place to adjudicate this.

Ultimately, you need to ask:

Did the US suffer the most vast & successful criminal conspiracy in history: one that's so sophisticated no LE agency, court of law, reporter, intelligence service, or forensic audit could detect it

Or

Joe Biden won a free and fair election

No vast conspiracy, mail in votes opened the door for decentralized action. The tabulation was insecure as well.

I'd love for LE & media to look into this & for a court to make a ruling.

I'm mostly frustrated w/ the lack of curiosity about the security of the election.

Mail is hard to hack; CO, UT, other states have all-mail voting There's no evidence of mail fraud affecting US elections.

Traditional news has covered this story exhaustively they rely on DOJ, or Secys of State, not Rudy / Powell / Flynn

No credible source is crying foul

Obtaining ballots w/no verification of ID makes fraud pretty easy, same with machines that are put online & accessed w/ a USB.

18 states, 3/4 of the GOP's delegation & 70 million Americans are crying foul & MSM lost their credibility w/ anything pertaining to Trump years ago.

68% anywhere should be investigated. According to Krebs some dominion machines had modems & access to the internet, most had usb access. It's a point of vulnerability that should be examined. Ultimately the mail in ballots w/ no verification are the weakest link.

68% anywhere should be investigated According to Krebs some dominion machines had modems & access to the internet, most had usb access. It's a point of vulnerability that should be examined. Ultimately the mail in ballots w/ no verification are the weakest link.

There are no mail in ballots w/o verification, though That simply doesn't exist.

You might not like the means of verification, but that's different than "without."

There's just no conspiracy here

Which covert action / ACCM have you ever been read in to that hasn't leaked?

Theres likely no vast conspiracy, but telling ppl Trump is literally hitler for yrs then mailing out ballots w/o voter ID provides small groups ability to commit fraud.

The Trump team & voter integrity project have presented some of this data, they should present it in court.

Elections are really a local affair, county, city. In VA there is a Board of Elections for each county and some cities (depends on size). Each of those boards administers the local election actions. That's one reason widespread fraud is so difficult

PA changing voter deadlines & their AG's public statements about Biden winning ahead of the election are grounds for a full audit & count.

The BoE only ssues ballots to eligible registered voters

Something sinister would require fraud with the voter registry, production of fraudulent votes (digital & paper), detailed evidence destruction, & silence among conspirators.

Possible? Maybe. Likely? Not at all.

The way the vote counting stopped during election night, access issues for observers & what appear to be fraudulent votes - dual state, dead ppl, illegals etc point to impropriety.

Again, I think giving the Trump team the chance in court would have solved all of this.

The Abraham Accords won't solve the world's problems, but the below discussion is something that has been sought for decades. It deserves our applause. Those in the region will write a new - & hopefully better - chapter in their history. Gratitude to those who made this possible.

@ChrisMurphyCT once again seems more like a diplomat or ambassador of #Iran's genocidal regime than a U.S. senator.

No surprise, however, since he has held secret meetings with @JZarif & is close to Iran's lobby groups @NIACouncil & @paaia.

They could have passed a two page bill in November that could have gotten every adult American $2,500 in time for Christmas.

A bill that every American would have been able to read and understand.

It wouldn't be enough but it would be a start.

Instead, they did this.

Last night I urged POTUS to submit the Iran Deal & Paris Agreement to the Senate as treaties. By submitting these disastrous deals to the Senate, we can provide advice & consent if a future administration attempts to revive them.

Read my letter

December [illegible], 2020

The Honorable Donald J. Trump
President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, DC 20500

The Honorable Michael Pompeo
Secretary of State
U.S. Department of State
2201 C Street NW
Washington, DC 20520

Dear President Trump and Secretary Pompeo,

The Constitution grants the Senate a significant unique and indispensable role in developing American foreign policy through treaties. Specifically, Article II, Section 2 provides that the President "shall have Power by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, to make Treaties, provided two thirds of the Senators present concur."

Multiple previous administrations, however, have undermined the Senate's constitutional role by negotiating significant international agreements and then refusing to submit them to the Senate for its advice and consent. Most recently – and most egregiously – President Obama refused to submit either the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (the "Iran Deal") or the United Nations Paris Climate Agreement (the "Paris Agreement") to the Senate as a treaty.

These agreements could and should have been submitted as treaties given their sweeping scope and numerous implications for American foreign and domestic policy. The Paris Agreement, for example, was hailed as the "most ambitious climate change agreement in history." The Iran Deal, meanwhile, was touted as "the most consequential foreign policy debate this our country has had since the invasion of Iraq."

That is why numerous Senators contended that the Obama Administration must submit both agreements to the Senate for advice and consent. Thirty-four Senators co-sponsored a resolution expressing the sense of Congress that the President should submit the Paris Climate change agreement to the Senate for its advice and consent. Because President Obama refused to do so, Senator Risch, the current Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was issued a writ subpoena with Senator Corker stating, "There are many reasons the Paris Climate Accord was a bad deal. Not the President says, among other things, that he wants congress to increase $600 payment to $2,000 before he will sign.

Again, Congress can deal with the rest of his concerns separately, pass a two page bill tomorrow that gives $2k checks & it can be signed.

No excuse not to do this

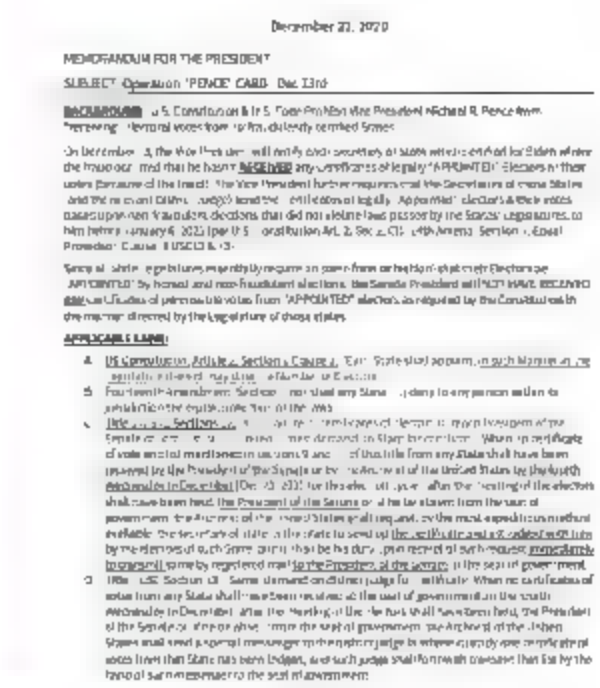
America, @VP @Mike Pence MUST do this, tomorrow!



To defend our Constitution from our enemies:

Foreign: China, Russia, Iran

Domestic: BigTech Censorship, MSM Censorship, Corrupt Officials at the Federal, State, and Local levels!

Let him know!

December 22, 2020

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Operation 'PENCE' CARD, Dec 23rd

BACKGROUND: U.S. Constitution & 12th U.S. Code Prohibit the Vice President (Michael R. Pence) from "receiving" electoral votes from any not duly certified States.

On December 3, the Vice President will notify each Secretary of State who has certified (or before the House and Senate that he hasn't RECEIVED any certificates of legally "APPOINTED" Electors in their states (pursuant to the Law).  The Vice President further requests that the Secretaries of these States (and the relevant Courts) weigh the certification of legally "Appointed" electors & their votes against unproven fraudulent elections that did not abide laws passed by the States' Legislatures, to him before January 6, 2021 (per U.S. Constitution Art. 2, Sec. 2, Cl. 14th Amend. Section 1, Equal Protection Clause, 18 USC § 241).

Many of these Legislatures, recently Democrat-run, gave power to the Governor (who certified "APPOINTED" by honest and non-fraudulent elections, the Senate President will NOT HAVE RECEIVED ANY certificates of person's ballot votes from "APPOINTED" electors, as required by the Constitution in the manner directed by the Legislature of those states.

APPLICABLE LAWS:

4. US Constitution, Article 2, Section 1, Clause 2: Each State shall appoint, in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors
5. Fourteenth Amendment, Section 1: nor shall any State deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.
6. 18 U.S.C. Section 241: If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same; or If two or more persons go in disguise on the highway, or on the premises of another, with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege so secured—They shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, they may be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.
7. 12th U.S.C. Section 15: Same; duties of Congress and judges thereof. When no certificates of votes from any State shall have been received at the seat of government on the fourth day of December next preceding the day on which the votes of the electors are to be counted, such votes may be counted. The President of the Senate shall, in the presence and hearing of the two Houses, open all the certificates and papers purporting to be certificates of the electoral votes of each State, which may be received by him during the session or prior thereto, and hand them to the tellers, who shall read the same in the presence and hearing of the two Houses. In case more than one return or paper purporting to be a return from a State shall be received by the President of the Senate, those returns or papers which shall have been first received by the person in whose office to deposit the same may be found by the President of the Senate, and no other, shall be counted, except in case there shall be more than one return or paper from a State which shall have been received by the person in whose office it was first deposited, in which case any return or paper which shall be received from the same State by the other person so depositing it shall be counted if it shall be the return or paper of the same kind that has been received from the State by the person to whose office it was first sent. The tellers shall thereupon make a list of the returns or papers so received as aforesaid, purporting to be returns of the electors of each State, and shall deliver the same to the President of the Senate, who shall thereupon announce the state of the vote, and the result as declared in the returns and papers, to the Senate and House of Representatives, and these shall not be questioned but in either House of Congress. But in case there shall be more than one return or paper purporting to be a return from a State, and the person to whose office it was first sent shall not have received the same, or in case no return or paper purporting to be a return from a State shall have been received by the person to whose office it was first sent, four days before the first Wednesday in December, in such case the votes of the electors appointed in such State, of which no return or paper has been so received four days before the first Wednesday in December, shall be counted, unless both Houses shall agree to reject the votes, or unless the two Houses, acting separately, shall concur in counting votes which have been rejected. If more than one return or paper from any State shall have been received by the person to whose office it was first sent, and he shall have failed to deposit the same in his office, the return or paper which shall be received from such State by the President of the Senate shall be counted, unless both Houses shall agree to reject the votes, or unless the two Houses, acting separately, shall concur in counting votes which have been rejected. If more than one return or paper from any State shall have been received by the President of the Senate, and the person to whose office it was first sent shall have failed to deposit the same in his office, and no return or paper from such State shall have been received by the President of the Senate four days before the first Wednesday in December, in such case the votes of the electors appointed in such State, of which no return or paper has been so received four days before the first Wednesday in December, shall be counted, unless both Houses shall agree to reject the votes, or unless the two Houses, acting separately, shall concur in counting votes which have been rejected. If more than one return or paper from any State shall have been received by the President of the Senate, and the person to whose office it was first sent shall have failed to deposit the same in his office, and no return or paper from such State shall have been received by the President of the Senate four days before the first Wednesday in December, in such case the votes of the electors appointed in such State, of which no return or paper has been so received four days before the first Wednesday in December, shall be counted, unless both Houses shall agree to reject the votes, or unless the two Houses, acting separately, shall concur in counting votes which have been rejected.

This makes no sense. A judge (the sister of Stacey Abrams) ruled that when someone tells the US Postal Service they have moved they still can vote from their old address.

Rules have no meaning any more. This is nuts.

For 4 yrs the smoking gun linking Trump to RU was eluded to but couldn't be publicly explained; it was classified. Until it wasn't & it crumbled.

W/ voter fraud we are asking to present data publicly & in court.

It's a case of narrative vs. a quest for the truth.

The origins of the steel dossier are the biggest example. If the Dems had evidence against Trump it would have gone toward an impeachment attempt or been leaked to smear Trump

Millions of voters concerned about election integrity deserve to be heard. I will object on January 6 on their behalf

Hawley Statement On Objecting During Electoral College Certification Process on Jan. 6

"Following both the 2004 and 2016 elections, Democrats in Congress objected during the certification of electoral votes in order to raise concerns about election integrity. They were praised by Democratic leadership and the media when they did. And they were entitled to do so. But now those of us concerned about the integrity of this election are entitled to do the same.

"I cannot vote to certify the electoral college results on January 6 without raising the fact that some states, particularly Pennsylvania, failed to follow their own state election laws. And I cannot vote to certify without pointing out the unprecedented effort of mega corporations, including Facebook and Twitter, to interfere in this election, in support of Joe Biden. At the very least, Congress should investigate allegations of voter fraud and adopt measures to secure the integrity of our elections. But Congress has so far failed to act.

"For these reasons, I will follow the same practice Democrat members of Congress have in years past and object during the certification process on January 6 to raise these critical issues."

There are 10 sealed indictments . Mueller has testified that charges can be brought against Trump once he leaves office don't think anything crumbled, think Barr diluted and convoluted his summary then classified the full report.

Whether you love Joe Biden or loathe him, there's fairly common agreement that his foreign policy track record has been a disaster. Thus far, he appears to be surrounding himself with loyalists who share his outlook. That's a dangerous echo chamber.

It still blows my mind that the Atlantic essay that Biden wrote in which he explained his thought process in selecting General Austin cited his oversight of the 2011 withdrawal from Iraq as a qualifier. That created the vacuum in which ISIS formed. He then commanded CENTCOM 🤦

Major discrepancies have been highlighted in 6- 7 states handling of mail in votes & tabulation. Not investigating creditable assaults on the foundation of our democracy should be out the question.

Two things strike me about the Iranian Quds Force and Iraqi muqawama leadership today

1) They are where we can see them, from Iraq to Iran to Yemen. And they don't say boo to the US when they are fixed and tracked. These guys fight to the last footsoldier

2) nomatter what you think of broader Trump/Pompeo approach to Iran, they may well have deterred Iran right up to Jan 20. Only a proven Sword of Damocles deters IRGC. Can it be done smarter, less disruptively? We'll see. But getting Iran to restrain its own proxies is impressive.

Tracing the 24k referenced in the call should be simple. Tracing questionable mail in votes in other states would be tedious but worth looking into as would the access control of tabulation machines.

Massive ballot fraud at the individual-precinct lvl is what appears to be the biggest issue & simplist to resolve. Ballot fraud when multiple states sent out significantly more ballots than ever before is easist to exploit & requires no conspiracy.

On top of the fact that the SAFE act was dead on arrival in the very senate that now claims to want to investigate the sanctity of our elections. I think very concerned people are being taken for a ride by politicians who are pretending to care to get campaign dollars

The easiest way to solve this & restore some faith is an investigation like Cruz is calling for. Let's run down credible accusations & show the public the stability of our system.

I don't disagree with updating the voting laws (which was attempted this summer but shot down) but I think people are conflating voting concerns with evidence of voter fraud. The goal post just keeps moving regardless of what courts of evidence suggests

Anytime serious evidence is brought forward, especially of ballot fraud, the individual is mocked & the media gets in lock step w/ it's narrative as opposed to doing any due diligence.

This is a religious belief, but the cult like aspect of it is that if evidence is not forthcoming that isn't taken as an article of faith that one can believe or not, but rather as a fact that is further submerged and occulted that the non-believers simply cannot see.

This week the house & senate will get to articulate their positions on the disputed states & potentially we'll have the 10 day investigation. Most of us just want these issues adjudicated so we can have faith in our elections.

Syria matters to our enemies, help them bleed for it.

US involvement in SY puts us in between our enemies & gives them options to strike us & deeply entangle us in a contest w/ no prize.

Unfortunately Biden's team of natsec failures won't be able to resist this trap.

Current US strategy in Syria (sanctions, holding their oil fields) only prolongs suffering of Syrian civilians. Syria represents no real strategic threat to us here in America why go out of our way to make life miserable for folks there?

Congress should pause 10 days to have state legislators meet as a body and debate and vote on certification. America deserves 10 days to let the Constitution work and for legislators to do their duty. Many blue state officials have prevented them from meeting since 11/3.

Violence is always unacceptable. Even when passions run high.

Anyone engaged in violence—especially against law enforcement—should be fully prosecuted.

God bless the Capitol Police and the honorable men & women of law enforcement who show great courage keeping all of us safe.

Rep. Cathy McMorris Rodgers backpedals and says she has now decided she will vote to uphold the Electoral College results. She's also called on the president to condemn and "put an end to this madness."

McMorris Rodgers Statement on Protests in Nation's Capitol

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Today, Washington Congresswoman Cathy McMorris Rodgers (WA-5) released the following statement regarding today's protests in the nation's capital:

"What happened today and continues to unfold in our nation's capital is disgraceful and un-American. Trump assaulted Capitol Police Officers, breached and defaced the people's building, put people's lives at danger, and disgraced the whole of America in the eyes of the world. I am Cathy McMorris Rodgers, and I have had a front row seat to the work of this body for the past 20 years. I have witnessed moments of great bipartisanship and moments of great partisanship. I have seen what we have been at our best and at our worst. I have never witnessed anything like what we saw today. Words and ultimatums have divided us and we must unite. The Electoral College results are unchallenged. Today, President Trump must unequivocally put an end to this madness.

The movement that Trump gave a voice to is not going away because of the actions of a criminal mob.

Violence is wrong & foolish.

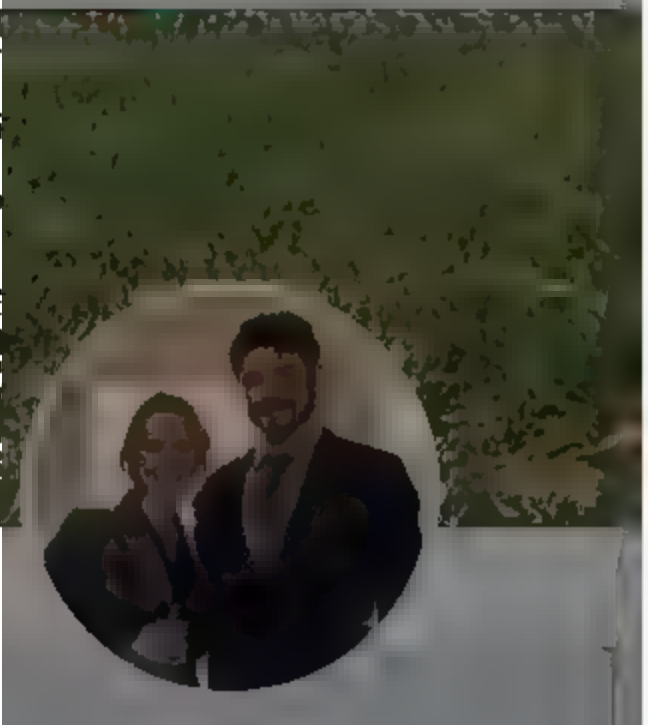
We cannot allow lazy conspiracy theorists & weak republicans to dilute the accomplishments of the Trump years. We have a solid record to run on.



Going forward we have to call out fraud w/ data & focus on the populist, America 1st agenda & accomplishments, not misplaced emotions

We should label those who acted violently as terrorists - they earned it. We should do the same w/ those who rioted at antifa/BLM riots. The left & media running cover for one form of violence showed that violence could be effective & consequence free.
